LARGER CIRCULATION IN THIS CITY, CHESTER AND ABERDEEN, OHIO, THAN ANY OTHER PAPER PUBLISHED IN MAYS-VILLE.

JOHN D. WHITE is afraid to meet Hon. Matt Adams on the stump in the tenth district. He has lately declined to make appointments with Mr. Adams for a canvass of the district.

THE General of the Army has issued an order assigning Major General Schofield to the Military Division of the Pacific, to take the place of Major General McDowell, who is about to be retired from active service.

The nomination of Folger for Governor of New York is believed in political circles to be the first step in the fight for a renomination of Arthur as the Republican candidate for President in 1884. He was put out as the strongest representative of the stalwart wing of the party and is to receive the extraordinary support of the adminstration. The nomination is to be bitterly antagonized by the Blaine faction.

Col. W. O. Brady, the Republican nominee for Congress in the eighth district against Hon. Phil B. Thompson, has withdrawn from the race. The reason assigned for his abandoning the contest. by those presumed to know, is that he failed to obtain from the National Republican Executive Committee the necessary "soap" with which to make good fight. The Republican party in the district is in consequence, badly demoralized.

WHEN THE FROST IS ON THE PUNKIN

BFNJ, F. JOHNSON.

When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock. And you hear the kyouck and gobble of the struttin' turkey-cock,

And clackin' of the guiney's, and the cluckin' of the hens, And the rooster's hallylooyer as he tiptoes on

Oit's then's the times a feller is a feelin' at his With the risin' sun to greet him from a night of gracious rest. As he leaves the house bare-headed and goes out to feed the stock, When the frost is on the punkin and the fod-der's in the shock.

They's somepin kindo hearty-like about the atmosphere, When the heat of Summer's over and the coolin' Fall is here-

Of course we miss the flowers, and blossoms on the trees. And the mumble of the hummin'-bird's and the buzzin' of the bees, But the air's so appetizin'; and the landscape through the haze, Of a crisp and sunny morning of the early autumn days Is the picture that no painter has the colorin' to mock-

When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock.

The husky, rusty, rustle of the tossils of the And the raspin of the tangled leaves, as golden as the morn;

The stubble in the turries-kindo' lonesomelike, but still A-preachin' sermons to us of the barns they growed to fill:

The strawstack in the medder, and the reaper in the shed; The hosses in their stalls below-the clover overhead !-

Oit sets my heart a clickin' like the tickin' of a clock, When the frost is on the punkin and the fod-der's in the sbock!

Some Very Plain Talk.

Lexington Transcript. The Weekly Fair Play, of this city, printed by colored men, deserves the title of Weekly Plain Talk. In the issue for this week the editor takes the people of his race seriously to task for being so worthless and cussed. And he also reads some plain lessons on political duties. He thinks the colored men have been hewers of wood and drawers of water for the Re-Miss Bertie Rudy left yesterday to attend the Ripley fair.

Miss Bird Paddock, after a pleasant yisit of several weeks at Delaware, Ohio, is at home again.

Miss Hattie Driscoll, who has been visiting friends in this city the past week, returned home, vesterday.

of wood and drawers of water for the Republican bosses long enough without receiving any share of the spoils. The offices controlled by Republicans employ negroes to do sweeping and drudgery only while in Frankfort in the capital there are at least seven negroes employed in positions of trust, drawing an aggregate salary of $212 per mouth. Everybody knows that these offices are in control of Democrats who make no pretensions of being negro lovers. make no pretensions of being negro lovers.
